The Widow of Larkspur Inn was a delight to read and I read the last few pages slowly just so I could savour it! The characters in this book will win you over and you will love them as friends by the end of it. Trials and tribulations come along but the men and women in this book find a way to make it through in their own way.

This is a perplexing review to write. The Widow of Larkspur Inn contained some things I really dislike in historical fiction, but all in all, I still enjoyed the book--no doubt a testament to Lawana Blackwell's excellent storytelling.. Three weeks after Julia Hollis' husband has died, she discovers that his hitherto unknown gambling addiction has left the family penniless.
